

PRESS RELEASE 15.10.17 with photos

THE OUTLAW AND THE SHOEMAKER series

The Outlaw, the Shoemaker and his Apprentice in Nottingham

How does Robin Hood keep the Sheriff on his toes? A good pair of boots. All that hi-jinks takes it toll on the shoe leather. Robin Hood's boots were worn out. Should he spend his loot on new boots or revive the worn out, but worn in and comfy old ones?

The Outlaw (Adam Greenwood) of Robin Hood Legacy - Robin Hood Experience of Friar Lane, Nottingham, came to collect his favourite boots from Nottingham's English Shoe Maker, Peter Bullock of Peter's Shoes which were beautifully restored, heeled and soled by the Shoemaker and his Apprentice, Lilly Deeming.

Afterwards the Outlaw couldn't wait to show his Maid Marian (Lisette Sorenson) the restored boots at his base camp hideout owned by Robin's alter-ego local businessman Adam Greenwood, on Friar Lane, The Robin Hood Experience.

The Peter explained how he restored them, much to their delight and amazement!

"I loved those boots", Adam said, "I thought I would never be able to wear my favourite boots again. Robin Hood is in my soul... and I now realise, in my soles!"

For further information please contact

Adam Greenwood at Robin Hood Legacy, 94 Friar Lane, Nottingham. Open every day 10am-6pm. Tel: 0115 947 4802

Peter Bullock or Lilly Deeming, Peter's Shoes, 14 Low Pavement, Nottingham. Open everyday 9am-5pm Sundays 10am-4pm. Tel: 0115 958 7363

Editor's Notes:

For more information and stories about The Outlaw and the Shoemaker, and any recent ACTivities and events, please contact Marysia Zipser, Arts & Heritage Tourism Promoter, of Beeston-based Art-Culture-Tourism organisation. 07899 798487 www.artculturetourism.co.uk marysia@artculturetourism.co.uk

All Photo Credits: Christopher Frost, of A Touch of Frost

A Touch Of Frost
Photography

A Touch Of Frost
Photography

