

Guest Programme - Friday March 10th 2017

FROM THE VATICAN TO NOTTINGHAM CITY COUNCIL HOUSE and BEESTON
via THE GHOST BUS...IN THREE ACTS

Roberto Alborghetti, visiting UK exclusively for this event, celebrated author, journalist, visual artist, official biographer of Pope Francis.

Two years after the film premiere at Bartons Plc, the "Ghost Bus" is back to the Land of Robin Hood with two days that celebrate the success of a visual art project born and developed in Nottingham, Chilwell and Beeston by Roberto Alborghetti, Simon Barton (Bartons Plc), Marysia Zipser and ACT Group (Art Culture Tourism). This is another opportunity to approach the "Ghost Bus" and its amazing world.

Meet Roberto Alborghetti

Tickets are required for the short film screenings to ensure a seat in each showing and these are available through Eventbrite. However Marysia Zipser has curated a program for you should you wish to join us her, Roberto and the other guests throughout the day.

Friday 10th March

12.00 - 12.30

Meet and talk together while the Lord Mayor of the City of Nottingham at Nottingham City Council House presents to Roberto a 1929 book published for the official opening of the Nottingham Council House building.

Presentation by Roberto to the Lord Mayor of one of his best selling volumes of Pope Francis. With photo call and social media snaps opportunity.

(Possible photo opportunity for the bloggers, photographers and social media snappers who join us.)

12.30 - 13.30

ACT ONE: Short introduction by Roberto Alborghetti and 3rd public showing of THE GHOST BUS film followed by "Can I Think of Love?" by Jeanie Barton (Colours of Nottingham Streets - short film) - Running Time 17 mins

Get your ACT 1 tickets from Eventbrite

Venue: Nottingham Council House, Members Lounge (now called the 'Weddings Registry' room) 50 tickets are available

14.30 - 15.30

Press Conference and Photo Call with invited journalists, writers and local bloggers. Please email marysia@artculturetourism.co.uk if you would like to attend. (Do you write a blog about local events and activities you attend? Then you count as a local blogger.) We'd be delighted to receive any links to posts you write for inclusion in our Ghost Bus Project digital scrapbook.

Venue: THiNK: Creative meeting space in Nottingham city centre, Cobden Place, Cobden Chambers, off Pelham Street, Nottingham NG1 2ED

photo by Katie Abey

Join us for the evening in Beeston

18.00 - 19.30

ACT TWO & THREE - 2 showings \(25 tickets for each screening\)

Roberto Alborghetti's "THE GHOST BUS" short film & video "Can I Think of Love?" by Jeanie Barton (Colours of Nottingham Streets)

- Running Time 17 mins

Venue: RUDYARD'S TEA HOUSE, High Street, Beeston

Get your ACT 2 & 3 tickets from Eventbrite

ACT 2: 18.20 1st showing/allocated seating

ACT 3: 18.55 2nd showing/allocated seating

below: photo from our premier two years ago

Change of Location

From 19.00 - MEET AND GREET Roberto Alborghetti

Venue: L'oliva, High Street, Beeston

- Italian bar/bistro/specialities

Saturday 11th March

from pictures of England

10.00 - 12.00

BEESTON residents are invited to come and talk with Roberto, at The Star Inn, The Snug Room before he ends his UK visit and returns to his studio in Italy.

Please email marysia@artculturetourism.co.uk if you would like to join us for a morning coffee.

Our new website : www.artculturetourism.co.uk

Follow us on Twitter

Talk to us on Facebook

USEFUL LINKS - Find out more

Roberto's Ghost Bus Project Page

Roberto's "About Me" page on his website

Feature article in ACS Magazine March 2016 with photographs on Nottingham by Roberto Alborghetti. Link to feature on page 42

Roberto is an Italian Correspondent for Chicago/USA publisher ACS Magazine.

Roberto Alborghetti

3 March at 19:16 · Animoto · €

Publicato oggi il 4° volume di "Francesco"! Un "grazie" a tutti coloro che hanno lavorato con me a questa opera...monumentale di Editrice Velar. / Today is out the 4th volume of "Francesco"! Many thanks to the team who worked with me to make this first encyclopedia of Pope Francis.

Published today, the 4th volume of " Francis "! a " thank you " to all those who worked with me to this opera... monumental of Editrice Velar. / today is out the 4th volume of "Francesco"! many thanks to the team who worked with me to make this first encyclopedia of Pope Francis.

⚙ · Rate this translation

<< Roberto's news on Facebook about the publication of his biographical work about Pope Francis.

For Further enquiries about attending 'throughout the day' contact >>

Marysia Zipser, Founder/CEO
Art Culture Tourism, Beeston, Nottingham, UK,

Mob: 07899 798487.

artculturetourism@gmail.com